Privacy Policy

In an effort to maintain the trust of our supporters and friends, the David Moerschel Evangelistic Association (DMEA) commits to the following policy to protect the personal information provided to us.

Information Collected:

In order to serve you better and more efficiently, we collect information including the following: E-mail addresses, phone, fax, home address, spouse name. In the case of credit or debit card donations, we maintain records of the credit card numbers and expiration dates used for those donations.

How the Information is Used

We use your information to issue an income tax receipt for donations, complete transactions, or personalize our communications with you.

No Sharing of Personal Information

The DMEA does not rent, lease, sell, or exchange our mailing list with anyone else. Your information will be kept confidential. Occasionally, the DMEA may contact those on our mailing list on behalf of other organizations whose purposes are similar to our own.

When transferring information over the Internet, the DMEA uses a Secure Socket Layer (SSL) encryption software protocol.

Links to other Web Sites

As a service to you, the DMEA provides links to other web sites that it believes will be helpful for your Christian walk. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy policies of these web sites.

Removal from our Lists

You may be removed from our list at any time by emailing info@davidmoerschel.org.

If you have any questions about our policy, please email info@davidmoerschel.org.
